Provided that if the Chief Inspector is of opinion that any register of workers or similar record maintained as part of the routine of an undertaking gives the particulars required under this rule, he may by order in writing direct that such register of workers or record shall be maintained in place of and treated as, the register of workers required to be maintained under this rule.

1[35-A. Every employer shall issue letters of appointment in Form XIV to all his employees and obtain acknowledgement in token of having served on them.]

36. Muster Roll:— Every employer shall maintain a muster roll of workers employed in the undertaking in Form No. X:

Provided that if the Chief Inspector is of opinion that any muster-roll or register maintained, as part of the routine of an undertaking gives the particulars required under this rule, he may by order in writing direct that such muster-roll or register be maintained in place of and treated as the muster roll required to be maintained under this rule.

37. Overtime Muster Roll:— Every employer shall maintain a muster roll in Form No. XI in which shall be correctly entered overtime hours of work and payments therefor. The muster-roll shall always be available for inspection:

Provided that if the Chief Inspector is of opinion that any overtime muster-roll or register maintained as part of the routine of an undertaking gives the particulars required under this rule, he may by order in writing direct that such overtime muster roll or register be maintained in place of and treated as the muster-roll required to be maintained under this rule.

1[37-A. The Registers, records and notices maintained and exhibited under the provisions of these rules shall always be available, or as near as practicable to the site of employment and shall be produced or caused to be produced for inspection at all reasonable hours by an Inspector having jurisdiction over the establishment]:

Provided that where an establishment has been closed or where an establishment has no building, the Inspector may demand the production of the registers and records in his office or such other public places may be nearer to the employer.

38. Individual Control Book:— (1) No employer shall allow the operation of any motor transport vehicle unless each motor transport worker travelling with the vehicle is provided with and maintains the individual Control Book in Form No. XII. The book shall be bound with the forms in duplicate and each form shall be numbered consecutively:

Provided that if the Chief Inspector is of opinion that any individual control book or similar record maintained as a part of the routine of an undertaking gives the particulars required under this rule, he may by order in writing direct that such individual control book or record be maintained in place of and treated as the individual book required under this rule.

(2) Every motor transport worker travelling with the vehicle shall make entries, daily in the individual control book and forward or hand over to his employer original copy of the form not later than the first working day after completion of the week to which the form related.

(3) Every employer shall maintain the original copies of the individual control book mentioned in sub-rule (2) in separate files for each motor transport worker for a period of three years and shall produce it on demand by an Inspector.

(4) Every motor transport worker travelling with the vehicle shall carry and retain with himself the individual control book for at least six months after the last entry and produce it for inspection on demand by an Inspector.
