13. Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972
14. Equal Remuneration Act, 1976
15. A.P. Factories (National, Festival & other Holidays) Act, 1974

3. After careful examination of the matter, the Government, hereby issue the following instructions for online inspection in continuation of the orders issued in the G.O.1st read above with regard to regularization and systematization of inspection procedures to be followed in the Labour

Department with a view to ensure simplification, transparency and accountability in Governance.

I. Inspecting officers:

Assistant Labour Officer, Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Deputy Commissioner of Labour, Joint Commissioner of Labour at field level and Assistant Commissioner of Labour-I and II, Deputy Commissioner of Labour, Joint Commissioner of Labour, Additional Commissioner of Labour and Commissioner of Labour.

II. Supervisory officers:

Assistant Commissioner of Labour on the online inspections carried out by the Assistant Labour Officer, Deputy Commissioner of Labour of the District on the inspections carried out by the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Joint Commissioners of Labour on the inspections carried out by the Deputy Commissioner of Labour and Commissioner of Labour on the inspections carried out by the Joint Commissioner of Labour in the field.

III. Data base of Establishments:

The following are the sources of data base of establishments for online inspection.

1. Data of establishments registered / renewed under A.P. Integrated Registration Act through mee-seva platform.
2. Data of Shops & Establishments, Motor Transport Undertakings, Factories, Societies and Trusts covered under A.P. Labour Welfare Fund Act, 1987 furnished by NIC.
3. Data of Factories furnished by Factories Department.
4. Establishments submitted online combined annual returns and not complied with the provisions of the labour Acts applicable.
5. Complaints received through online complaint portal "Mee-Kosam".

IV. Selection of Establishments for online inspection:

Selection of establishments for online inspection shall be on risk assessment on the following criteria:

1. Number of workers
2. Nature of activity of the establishment.
3. Number of contract workers.
4. Status of compliance on the basis of combined annual return / online inspection (rating of compliance to be given by the department as prescribed by the Commissioner of Labour)
5. Complaints (workers, trade unions, managements, citizens etc.)
6. Compulsory Inspections (Ex: Orders of Courts and other Judicial Institutions like Lokayukta, HRC etc.
7. An establishment inspected in a year will not be inspected in the next two years.

V. Random allocation of establishments and inspectors for online inspection:

System randomly allocates establishments to the inspecting officers and inspecting officers to the establishments. In case of inspection of an establishment in the area other than his/her jurisdiction, the inspecting officer having administrative jurisdiction shall take up follow up action.

System ensures that the same establishment is not allotted to the same inspector for a period of 3 years.

VI. Risk based assessment & categorization of establishments:

(a) Risk categorization on the basis of number of workers:

Risk in the perspective of the Labour department for categorization into high risk, medium risk and low risk establishments relates to risk to the workers in terms of their entitlement viz. wages, bonus & other remuneration, leave, holidays, working hours, , worksite facilities, safety & health, welfare and social security measures like gratuity, EPF, ESI, accident compensation etc.

Experience of the department indicates that the smaller the establishment the less is the compliance. Therefore small establishments employing up to 100 workers may be categorized as high risk establishments.

Establishments having employees 100 to 300 have the tendency to comply with the labour laws to some extent and further compliance may be secured by some moderate action towards enforcement. Such establishments may be categorized as medium risk establishments.

Establishments having more than 300 workers generally comply with the labour laws to a reasonable extent due to their resourcefulness and further compliance may be secured by persuasive measures. These establishments may be categorized as low risk establishments.

All establishments having no employees are only required to be registered and no other provisions of labour laws are applicable to such establishments and therefore may be categorized no risk establishments and may be totally excluded from inspection system.

(b) Risk categorization on the basis of number of contract workers engaged:

There are certain establishments employing large number of contract workers some times more than the number of regular workers. In such establishments, the terms and conditions of employment of regular workers and contract workers are totally different and contract workers are prone to exploitation. The contract establishments of all such establishments employing contract workers exceeding 25 % of total workers of the Principal Employer establishment be categorized as high risk establishments.

(c) Risk categorization on the basis of nature of activity of the establishment:

In certain activities workers are prone to exploitation besides risk of accidents and health hazardous. On the basis of activity the following establishments may be categorized as high risk establishments.
